Dear Mr. O'Brien,

I'd like to thank you for completing the questionnaire I sent you recently concerning Cornelius Ryan's proposed new book on the invasion of Holland. I have read it with a great deal of interest and there are several further questions I'd like to ask.

I note that you have not given any telephone number where I can contact you, so I wonder if you could possibly ring me at my home, tel. no. Cuffley (284) 4127, so that we could arrange a time when we could have a talk about your story.

Thank you again for your help and your interest. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Frederic Kelly,
Assistant to Mr. Ryan
